

News from Room 202

Dear Parents/Guardians,

It's been a long and hot week, but students have done a great job staying focused. However, I think they are ready for this three day weekend. As your child gets a chance to relax this weekend, I just wanted to let you know of some things we have been doing in class. First, we have been reading the novel On My Honor in class and we hope to finish it by the end of next week.

On 9/5 we will be having a small quiz on character traits. Your child has notes to study each night to him/her prepare. If your child needs a new copy, he/she can get a new copy from our classroom website. It's important that your child study for 10-15 minutes each night for the quiz.

Next, we have started our weekly online reading logs. Each Sunday night a new reading log will be available online. It will be due by Friday at 4:00 P.M. Some students have asked if he/she must read a new book each week. However, they DO NOT have to start a new book. Students can continue to read the same book for a few weeks until he/she finishes. They just need to complete a new reading log each week.

Also, next week your child will have a brief online quiz to using 'Quizstar', which can also be found on our classroom website. This will also be available on Sunday night and must be completed by Friday evening. Once again, if you do not have Internet access or a computer, don't worry. The online quiz and reading journal can be completed in class.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. Have a great weekend.
